

*Hawai'i Council for the Humanities presents the 3rd Annual Distinctive Women in Hawaiian History Program
He Ho'olaule'a No Nā Mo'olelo o Nā Wāhine
A Celebration of Women's History
Saturday, April 25, 2009; 9:00 am-5:00 pm*

Venue: Hawai'i Convention Center's Theater 310 at the Jean Charlot Courtyard, Meeting Level 3, located at 1801 Kalākaua Avenue, Honolulu, HI 96815

Limited Seating: program is for Lifelong Learners; high school students are welcome

Admission: FREE. Suggested Donation: $8.00+ applied directly to program costs. Registration extended to April 21*, forms received after April 21 postmark will be considered as space available.

Non-refundable Meal Fee: $28.50 includes Convention Center Catered Lunch, break snacks, & beverages (Advanced Purchase only with registration, Note: Hawai'i Convention Center prohibits outside food from entering the Center)

Catered Lunch Options: Flame Grilled Italian Vegetables with Mozzarella on Home-Baked Focaccia Bread (*highly recommended, even by non-vegetarians) or Gourmet Turkey Sandwich. Both served with chips, whole fresh fruit, cookie, mint, and beverage. Note: Hawai'i Convention Center prohibits outside food from entering the Center.

Event Schedule Updates: www.distinctivewomenhawaii.org

Registration mail in /Downtown drop off with Non-refundable Meal Fee: Distinctive Women In Hawaiian History Program, P.O. Box 3166; Honolulu, HI 96802 or Downtown drop off site: Mission Houses Museum's Store, 553 South King Street, Honolulu 96813, Tuesdays – Saturdays, 10:00am – 4:00pm.

Venue Parking: Convention Center has a daily rate of $5.00 per car. Enter from Kalākaua Avenue/mauka of the Convention Center. Public Transportation: 5 minute walk from The Bus's many routes connecting to Ala Moana Center, also located adjacent to bus routes entering Waikiki neighborhood (www.thebus.org).

Community Responsibility- Recycling of old Cell Phones & Printer/Copier Cartridges and Canned Meat/Tuna Food Drive. You are encouraged at check-in, to drop off used ink cartridges and cell phones. The cartridge recycling in cooperation with Cartridge World-Honolulu provides a sustainable reuse of these products and keeps them out of O'ahu landfills. Cell phone recycling is in cooperation with AT&T as a proud partner of Cell Phones for Soldiers, a recycling program that provides pre-paid phone cards to US military members serving in Afghanistan, Iraq and Kuwait. The food drive is for the Honolulu families served by River of Life Mission.

EARLY check-in: at Mission Houses Museum's FREE Museum Open House, Friday, April 24, 11:00am thru 4:00pm

Event day check-in: 8:15-9:00am, Hawai'i Convention Center, with Canned Meats, Cartridge & Cell Phone Recycling

Event Info: (808) 497-3775, info@distinctivewomenhawaii.org & www.distinctivewomenhawaii.org

Registration deadline: Extended to Tuesday, April 21* postmark. All after considered as space available.

Name: _____

Organization: _____

Address: _____

City, state, zip: _____

Phone number: _____

Email address (registration confirmations sent weekly via email, if you do not have email a family/friend's email may be used as a relay for confirmation & program updates): _____

How did you hear about the program: _____

Physical disability requiring special seating: _____

Non-refundable Meal Fee: $28.50 Catered Lunch, break snacks, & beverages

Catered Food Selection: Grilled Italian Vegetables with Mozzarella _____ ; Gourmet Turkey Sandwich _____

Admission: FREE. Suggested Donation: $8.00+, applied directly to program costs. Donation enclosed: _____

Payment: Check/Money Order (payable Hawai'i Council for the Humanities)# _____,

Cash (paid at Museum Store) _____, or VISA _____; Master Card _____; American Express _____

Name on charge account: _____

Account # _____ Expires: _____

Authorized signature: _____

Privacy Note: Personal data will NOT be shared/nor released to third parties.

Filming Acknowledgement: Entering the theater means consent to possibly being in program's filming.

Date received (completed by Event Committee): _____